

Name: _____
Last Name First Name MI

WIN #: _____ Major: _____ Graduation Date: _____

The minor in Economics can be earned by candidates for any bachelor's degree offered by Washburn University. The Economics faculty has approved the following requirement for the optional minor: (1) Economics 200 and 201, (2) nine hours of Economics courses numbered 300 or above, and (3) an approved course in statistics. For further information, contact the School of Business.

Lower Division Requirements	Credit Hours	Semester	Grade	University
EC200 Microeconomics (EN101, MA112/MA116)	3
EC201 Macroeconomics (EN101, MA112/MA116, EC200)	3

Upper Division Requirements	Credit Hours	Semester	Grade	Notes
Approved Statistics Course (MA140, EC211 or any 300/400-level statistics course)	4
9 Hours of Economics Courses (300-level or above):
	3
	3
	3

Recommended Courses:

- EC300 Microeconomic Analysis (EC200, EC201, MA116, 2.0 GPA, 60 hrs.)
- EC301 Macroeconomic Analysis (EC200, EC201, MA116, 2.0 GPA, 60 hrs.)
- EC306 Game Theory and Applications (MA116, MA140 or higher, 60 hrs.)
- EC310 History of Economic Thought (EC200, EC201, 60 hrs.)
- EC341 Labor Economics (EC200, EC201, 60 hrs.)
- EC388 Urban and Regional Economics (EC200, EC201, 60 hrs.)
- EC410 International Economics (EC200, EC201, 60 hrs.)
- EC485 Money and Banking (EC200, EC201, 60 hrs.)
- Other Economics elective(s) as available

Department Office Use Only:

Status: Minor completed
 Minor will be created with "C" or better in currently enrolled classes

Chair Signature: _____ Date: _____