

Entrepreneurship Certificate

Application for Certification

The Certificate in Entrepreneurship is open to all students at Washburn University. It is designed for students who want to start their own venture, operate a family business or become a champion of change within a large corporate organization. The program exposes students to various business disciplines and how to create a detailed business plan for a start-up venture. Innovation and creativity are explored to understand how ideas can be brought to reality and commercialized. Students will also have the opportunity to launch their ventures in the capstone clinic class. The program is well-suited for students wanting to make themselves more valuable to companies, as managers now look to hire graduates who show initiative and entrepreneurial characteristics that can add immediate value to a firm. The Entrepreneurship Certificate program can add value for every students' career now and in the future.
