

ISAAC BIRD

Isaac is graduating with a Bachelor of Arts and Sciences in Art Education degree. He plans to pursue continued education in his field in order to serve America as a powerful advocate and educator for the arts. In the future, he intends to complete graduate programs in Studio Art, Education Administration, and Art History. Isaac intends to take his undergraduate skills where they are needed most right now and join the ranks of educators supporting the national and global community of learners as they are affected by novel coronavirus. Following this, he intends to next pursue his MFA at University of Iowa, following in the footsteps of several esteemed Washburn faculty members. Isaac is a member of Mortar Board Honor Society and Phi Kappa Theta Honor Society. He is a prior member of Washburn Residential Council and the Washburn Players, a highly involved member of both art and education departments, and a 6-semester Peer Educator. Isaac has received the Garvey II Competitive Scholarship, Melody Brown Scholarship, Academic Stuenkel Scholarship, Petro Art Scholarship, Sanders Scholarship, Morgan Education Scholarship, Whelan Teachers Scholarship, Academic Stauffer Scholarship, FYE Peer Educator Scholarship, and Lynda Miller Art Education Scholarship.
