

MADISON FARR

Madison is graduating with a Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting degree. She plans to begin Washburn University's Masters of Accountancy degree program in the Summer of 2020, which she anticipates completing in May of 2021. Upon earning her Masters in Accountancy degree, Madison will have completed the requirements needed to sit for the CPA certification exam. In the future, she plans to work as a certified public accountant specializing in governmental auditing and assurance services. Madison is a member of the Alpha Lambda Delta Honor Society, Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society, Beta Gamma Sigma Business Honor Society, and the Beta Alpha Psi Accounting and Finance Honor Society. She has gained professional experience as a summer intern with Lewis, Hooper & Dick, LLC in Garden City, Kansas and as a tax season intern with Wendling, Noe, Nelson & Johnson in Topeka, Kansas. She enjoys volunteering with Meals on Wheels, Kansas Children's Service League, and the Beta Alpha Psi Honor Society. Madison received the Marcoux Business Scholarship, Finnup Foundation Scholarship, Garvey Competitive Scholarship, Ronald & James Snyder Scholarship, and the Topeka Chapter of the IIA Scholarship. She was also recognized as one of the Magnificent Seven business students in Spring of 2020.
