To Obtain Formal Admission

Each candidate must complete the following steps:

1. File a Declaration of Major Form and/or a Declaration of Teacher Licensure Form.

Elementary K-6: Complete and file a Declaration of Major form online (My Washburn—Students tab—Declare or Change Your Major). When you file your Declaration form, a faculty member in the Department of Education will be assigned to advise you regarding: (a) general education and (b) professional education requirements.

Secondary 6-12 and P-12 Subject Majors: File a Declaration of Major form online (My Washburn—Students tab—Declare or Change your Major). Make sure you select the correct major (e.g., History Education, instead of History). You will be assigned an advisor from your major department who will advise you regarding requirements to complete the major and general education requirements, and an advisor in the Department of education who will advise you regarding professional education requirements.

Licensure Only Candidates: Elementary K-6, Secondary 6-12, and P-12: File a Declaration of Certification/Teacher Licensure form online (My Washburn—Students tab—Declare or Change your Major). Select Teacher Licensure Only as your degree and then select your teaching specialty. You will be assigned an advisor from your teaching specialty department who will advise you regarding requirements in the teaching specialty, and an advisor in the Department of Education who will advise you regarding professional education requirements.

2. File an Application for Admission to the Professional Teacher Education Program. Complete the attached Admissions Application form.

Review of Applications: Application materials may be submitted for review three times a year: August 1, November 1, and April 1. All application materials must be submitted by the application date. Upon review of application materials, the Undergraduate Admission Committee will either recommend or deny admission to a teacher licensure program. Candidates will be notified in writing regarding their admissions status. Licensure candidates not admitted will have to resubmit an application for a subsequent admissions review.

Questions and/or Right of Appeal: You will be notified in writing of any action taken by the Faculty of the Department of Education. Any time you have any questions regarding requirements for admission or the status of your application for admission, you should not hesitate to consult with your Professional Education Advisor, the Licensure Officer in the Department of Education Office, or the Department of Education Chairperson. Department and University polices assure that you have the right to appeal any decision that may affect your academic status and to correct any error of record that may occur inadvertently. Informal appeals may be made verbally to the Chairperson of the Department of Education. Formal appeals should be made in writing and submitted to the Chairperson of the Department of Education. Formal appeals are referred to the Faculty of the Department of Education. Every effort is made to assure that student records and applications for admission are handled accurately, promptly and professionally.

To obtain formal admission to STUDENT TEACHING a 2.75 GPA will be required for both Specialty Courses and Professional Courses at the time of Admission. Students must earn a grade of C or better in each specialty/content course and Professional Education Courses. This requirement pertains to both degree seeking students and licensure only students.
