

Weekend Wine Getaway

October 19-21, 2012

$249 per person double occupancy

(single supplement add $125)

Spend the weekend with Washburn alumni and friends tasting wine along the Hermann, Missouri Wine Trail. Before Prohibition, Hermann produced more than one million gallons of wine a year and was home to the nation's second largest winery. Today Hermann-area winemakers are once again producing award-winning wines.

Winding through some of the prettiest scenery in Missouri, the Hermann Wine Trail meanders for some 20 miles along the Missouri River between Hermann and New Haven. Nestled along the trail are seven charming family-owned wineries and two microbreweries.

Board the private motorcoach, sit back and enjoy the ride to Hermann. We'll leave the Washburn campus at 5 p.m. and will swing through KC and pick up some KC area alumni and friends. We'll overnight in nearby Warrenton and then spend Saturday and Sunday tasting wine, beer and sausage in Augusta, Hermann and Swiss, Missouri.
