XIN (ANNIE) JIANG
SCHOOL OF BUSINESS AND SCHOOL OF NURSING
SPRING 2012 SIBBERSON AWARD RECIPIENT

Xin (Annie) is an international student from China and graduated in May 2012 with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree in Accounting and Finance. After graduation she began her career in the taxation track with Pricewaterhouse Coopers LLP in San Jose, California. She will begin taking the certified public accountant exam over the summer and plans to complete all four sections this year. After working for three years, she plans to pursue a Master of Business Administration degree.

Annie served as vice president and treasurer of the International Club, was a senator for the Washburn Student Government Association, served as student activities coordinator for Beta Alpha Psi, and is a member of Beta Gamma Sigma and Mortar Board. She was a volunteer with Big Brothers Big Sisters since 2009, and a volunteer for Easter Seal Capper Foundation, Junior Achievement, and United Way. She was also a Chinese tutor and an accounting tutor for Washburn.

In addition to scholarships Annie received in her home country of China, she received the American Business Women’s Association Scholarship, Washburn School of Business Leadership Scholarship, Washburn School of Business Academic Scholarship, Washburn Alumni Association Scholarship, Washburn Academic Scholarship, and Washburn International Program Scholarship.
