

RHEAGAN HAGEMAN

SCHOOL OF APPLIED STUDIES

Rheagan is graduating with a Bachelor of Applied Science in Human Services with a Certificate in Victim/Survivor Services, and a minor in Social Work. She plans to work in the social services field with those who have experienced trauma. She is applying to graduate programs to further her education. After graduation, she plans to stay involved in the Topeka community and serve those with mental health crises.

Rheagan is a member of the Washburn NONOSO Honor Society, Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society, Mortar Board, Tau Upsilon Alpha Honor Society, Gamma Sigma Alpha Honor Society, and Alpha Lambda Delta Honor Society. She is an active member of Delta Gamma Fraternity, First Year Experience Peer Educators, and Residential Living. She completed her internships with the Topeka Rescue Mission – Children’s Palace and the YWCA Center for Safety and Empowerment. She volunteered with the Big and Little Event, Big Brothers Big Sisters, and Central Church of Christ. She completed her Washburn Transformational Experience as a result of her community service to the YWCA.

Rheagan was recognized as a Who’s Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges recipient in 2019. She received the Delta Gamma Mary Hutchinson Congeniality Award in 2019. She has received the Washburn Academic Scholarship, Delta Gamma Merit Scholarship, and the Phi Kappa Phi School of Applied Studies Scholarship.
