

EMILY NOBLE

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

Emily is graduating with a Bachelor of Arts in Education with an emphasis in Special Education. She plans to work in an elementary school in the Topeka area following graduation. In the future, she intends to pursue a master's degree as an Instructional Specialist through Emporia State University.

Emily is a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society and has been on the President's Honor Roll for each semester that she has attended Washburn University. She volunteered for Washburn University Recruitment Day for the Education Department in March 2019. In addition, she volunteered on Fellowship Bible Church's Children and Student Ministry teams. There she implemented lessons, activities, and childcare to infant through middle school students.

Emily has been a special needs care provider, an assistant teacher at the Randolph Before School Program, and a substitute teacher for the Seaman school district. Through the Learning in the Community (LinC) office, she has also been a tutor for students in the GED program and an assistant teacher for the English as a Second Language (ESL) class at Washburn Institute of Technology. She has also been an assistant teacher at Heights of Learning Preschool and a Children's Ministry Intern at Fellowship Bible Church.

Emily received the Phi kappa Phi Honor Society Scholarship, the Lala Tull Phillippi Scholarship, and the General University Contingency Scholarship.
