

EDGAR FUENTES

Edgar is graduating with a Bachelor of Legal Studies. In Fall 2020 Edgar will begin attending law school at Washburn University School of Law. While in law school, he plans to become involved in the mock trial organization to improve his interpersonal communication skills and familiarize himself with legal proceedings. After graduating law school, he plans to practice criminal law in the state of Kansas, before settling down in Texas. He is a member of the Washburn University Student Ambassadors, and a member of the pre-law club. He participated in the School of Applied Studies' mediation program and underwent CORE mediation training. While at Washburn University, he has received a transfer academic scholarship, Phi Theta Kappa Scholarship, All-Kansas Academic Team scholarship, Legal Studies scholarship, and School of Applied Studies scholarship.
