

ELEANOR JONES

SPRING 2024 SIBBERSON RECIPIENT

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

Eleanor is graduating with a Bachelor of Arts in History. At the same time, she will also finish her first year of law school, having enrolled as part of Washburn's Law Early Admission Program with Washburn Law School. She plans to work in the field of public interest law, providing representation to members of the community who have limited legal resources.

Eleanor is a member of the Phi Alpha Theta, Phi Kappa Phi and Alpha Lambda Delta honor societies. She was Secretary/Treasurer for Phi Alpha Theta in 2022-2023. She presented a research paper about cultural pluralism in the 20th century at the Phi Alpha Theta Biennial Convention in 2023. The presentation fulfilled a Scholarly or Creative Washburn Transformational Experience (WTE). She also traveled with fellow students to Albuquerque, New Mexico for the convention.

Eleanor completed an International Education WTE in 202, when she and her Women in World War II class went to France over spring break. While in France, her class visited various museums, memorials and beaches, learning the way the French remembers their involvement in the war.

Eleanor has served as President of the Honors Student Council, Secretary of Pre-Law Club, Secretary of Mock Trial and Secretary/Treasurer of the Catholic Campus Center for 2022-2023. In these roles, Eleanor collaborated with a team of co-executives to plan events, made funding requests and helped cultivate a sense of community.

Eleanor received the Rowland Scholarship, Cecile Strohm Brunt Scholarship, Garvey Competitive Exam Scholarship, Mock Trial Scholarship, AmeriCorps Segal Education Award, and BlueScope Foundation Scholarship. She is also a recipient of the John B. Wooley and Colleen Wooley Distinguished Scholarship in law school.
