

Communication Studies Financial Aid Application

Application Directions

In our efforts to recognize and reward exemplary Communication Studies students, we are offering financial awards for the upcoming academic year. We invite students who fulfill the below criteria to apply:

- ✓ Have completed by the end of the Spring 2020 semester the following courses:
CN101, CN150 and six (6) additional credit hours of Communication courses
- ✓ Have declared Communication Studies as your major or minor

Scholarships (minimum 3.0 GPA Overall and in CN is required):

- Toni McCorkill Boyles Communication Scholarship
- Meredith A. Moore Communication Award Scholarship
- Dick Rosetta and Susan Holding-Rosetta Scholarship

Fellowships (you should emphasize work ethic, outside activities/work, or other factors that make you deserving of financial assistance in your application materials):

- Communication Department Scholarship Fund
- Helen L. Peterson Memorial Fellowship
- Charles A. Fulcher Memorial Fellowship

If you meet the criteria in either or both of the areas listed above and are interested in applying, complete and submit the following two (2) components to be considered for CN financial aid:

- Complete and submit the attached application form
- Submit an essay that is typed, double-spaced, and no longer than 500 words answering the following question:

How will your studies in the field of Communication Studies prepare you for your chosen career?
If you have financial need, please also address that in your essay.

You may be awarded funds if you are either part-time or full-time at Washburn University. You may also apply for financial awards if you are graduating in December 2020.

All materials should be turned in to the Communication Studies Department no later than 5:00pm on Friday, March 20, 2020. Applications that are incomplete will not be considered.
