Standing Senate Rules of the Washburn Student Government Association

- I. Procedure
 - a. Robert's Rules of Order
 - i. All meetings of the Washburn Student Government Association shall be governed by Robert's Rules of Order under the guidance of the Parliamentarian.
 - b. No interruptions of a recognized speaker shall be made unless permitted under Robert's Rules of Order.
 - c. In the event any individual or individuals within the Senate Chambers acts in an unacceptable or inappropriate behavior, as deemed so by the Chair or a 2/3rds majority of Senators present, those individual(s) shall be removed from the Senate Chambers for a specific amount of time.
- II. Cabinet Reports
 - a. The weekly report of each individual Cabinet member shall be no more than two (2) minutes in length.
- III. Public Forums
 - a. All Public Forums shall be limited to fifteen (15) minutes in length.
 - i. If those fifteen (15) minutes expire, there must be a motion to extend the Public Forum for a specific amount of time.
 - ii. This motion shall be passed by a simple majority vote of the member's present.
 - b. All Senators and Non-Senators shall be recognized for a maximum of two (2) minutes at a time.
 - c. The recognition of Senators and Non-Senators shall be based on precedence.
- IV. Debate
 - a. Each bill and resolution on the table shall be limited to twenty (20) minutes in length.
 - i. If those twenty (20) minutes expire, there must be a motion to extend debate for a specific amount of time.

- b. The author(s) of each bill or resolution shall be given three (3) minutes to introduce the legislation.
 - i. In the case that the legislation presently before the Senate specifically cites an individual, an organization, or a group of individuals, a representative of those cited shall be given the right to be recognized for two (2) minutes after the author(s) introduction.
- c. Once the author(s) have introduced the legislation and any cited parties have been given their right to be recognized, the floor will be opened to a period of questioning.
 - i. This period shall be meant to ask specific questions of the legislation's author and any germane parties.
- d. Once all questions have been exhausted, the floor will then be opened to a period of debate on the legislation.
 - i. During debate, any Senator may be recognized to speak for two (2) minutes at a time.
 - 1. Senators shall be recognized by the Chair on the basis of precedence.
 - ii. Any Non-Senators that wish to speak on the legislation shall be yielded time by a recognized Senator.
 - 1. When a Non-Senator is yielded time by a Senator and recognized by the Chair, they shall be confined to the time allowance given to the original recognized Senator.
 - iii. On each motion during the debate of any piece of legislation, any Senator may be recognized a maximum of two (2) times.
 - 1. If a Senator wishes to be recognized further times, they must be yielded time by another Senator that has not run out of recognition rights.
 - 2. An author(s)' opening and closing statements will not count against their times to speak.
 - iv. If at any time during the period of debate a specific individual or organization is cited, that individual or organization shall have the right to be recognized by the Chair for a one (1) minute rebuttal.
 - v. Once the time limit for the legislation has been reached and there does not exist enough votes to extend the time, the debate must end and the Previous Question must be called.
 - vi. Once the Previous Questioned has been called and passed, the author(s) shall have the right to be recognized by the Chair for closing statements of no more than two (2) minutes in length.

- vii. After both the Previous Question has been called and passed and closing statements have been made, the Senate shall immediately move into a final vote on the legislation, except when the legislation concerns the Constitution or By-Laws of the Washburn Student Government Association.

V. Voting

- a. Only a motion of Previous Question passed by a 2/3rds majority of those members present can end the debate of any bill or resolution.
 - i. A motion of Previous Question is not the final vote of any bill or resolution, it only serves to end the debate.
 - ii. Once any motion of Previous Question has passed, there shall still be a final vote of the bill or resolution on the table needed.
- b. All bills affecting the Constitution of the Washburn Student Government Association shall be passed only by a 2/3rds majority vote of the members present after the second reading and proper debate.
- c. All bills and resolutions not concerning the Constitution of the Washburn Student Government Association, including the By-Laws of the Washburn Student Government Association, shall be passed by a simple majority vote of the members present after a single reading a proper debate.

VI. Waiving the Rules

- a. During the course of any Washburn Student Government Association meetings, when the need arises and under the guidance of the Parliamentarian, the Senate shall have the ability by a 2/3rds majority vote to waive specific rules cited within this Senate Standing Rules or the greater By-Laws.
 - i. In order to waive any rule, the specific rule must be cited and the motion to waive shall be thoroughly explained.
 - ii. Once the reason for the waiving of the rule has passed, all rules shall be reinstated immediately and without the need for a vote of the Senate.

VII. Adoption of these Standing Senate Rules

- a. These Standing Senate Rules shall be held under the By-Laws of the Washburn Student Government Association.
- b. Passage and adoption of these Standing Senate Rules shall fall under the necessary requirements of any amendment to the By-Laws of the Washburn Student Government Association.

SB 20-21 #036

Full Senate Meeting: September 15th, 2021

TITLE: Meeting Constraints

ORIGINATOR: Senator Asamoah

SPONSOR: Trautman/Babcock Administration

STATUS: Bi-Laws- Pending

WHEREAS: Article 2, Section 9 of the Washburn Student Government Association constitution provides the times when WSGA senate shall meet, and

WHEREAS: Subsections A and B of Article 2, Section 9 provide times that the meetings shall begin, there exists no outline for meeting flow nor a specified time for meeting adjournment, and

WHEREAS: specifying the order of meeting items and time constraints on a meeting will assist with maintaining focus, appropriate time management, and conscientiousness for the time of WSGA members.

THEREFORE, BE IT ENACTED:

SECTION ONE: The WSGA Senate adds a new subsection in Section 9 titled “D” that reads “Senate meetings will follow the order of: calling to order, roll call, cabinet reports, committee reports, public forums, old business, new business, roll call and conclude with adjournments. Any changes to the order must be done with a standard vote”

SECTION TWO: The WSGA Senate adds a new subsection in Section 9 titled “E” that reads “Senate meetings will begin at the calling to order and will be limited to 95 minutes from then. Time will be kept by the administrative assistant. If The meeting has not reached a point near the conclusion at the 90-minute mark the Senate will take a vote to extend the meeting by “X” minutes (an amount proposed at the time). To win this vote requires 25% of senate to vote in favor of extension. Should the requisite 25% not be met all remaining agenda items will be tabled for the following meeting. Immediately following a failed extension attempt the meeting will resume with the roll call followed by adjournment. Should the vote be successful the meeting will be extended by the “X” minutes.”

SECTION THREE: This legislation shall become effective upon passage.

Abby Trautman
WSGA President

Dylan Babcock
WSGA Vice President

SECTION 9. Members of the WSGA Senate shall meet:

- A. Every week on Wednesdays at 6:30p.m. during the spring and fall semesters, except during finals, and days when regular classes are not held, for the purpose of weekly meetings of the WSGA Full Senate.
- B. WSGA Standing Committees shall meet on Wednesdays at 6:00p.m. immediately before the WSGA Full Senate meetings and only on weeks when the WSGA Full Senate meets unless voted on by any respective committee.
 1. If a WSGA Standing Committee votes to hold their meetings outside of this time, then the Chair of that committee shall announce their official meetings days and times to the WSGA Full Senate at the next available meeting.
- C. If a special meeting of the WSGA Senate is called by the WSGA President.
 1. No constitutional or by-law amendments may be discussed.

SECTION 10. TECHNOLOGY DIRECTOR

A. The WSGA Technology Director shall have the responsibility to:

1. Maintain at least 10 scheduled office hours per week during the spring and fall semesters. Office Hours may only be scheduled between 8am and 7pm.

2. Submit a report at each senate meeting.
3. Assist students who enter the WSGA office.
4. Work with all WSGA Cabinet members in order to answer questions regarding any WSGA service or activity.
5. Maintain all electronic and technological equipment in the WSGA office. This includes, but is not limited to, desktop computers, laptop, projector, printers, and copiers.
6. Update and maintain the WSGA website and all other means of electronic communication.
7. The WSGA President reserves the right to require the Technology Director to be present at all WSGA Senate meetings, as outlined by the Chief of Staff attendance policy, to inform and advise the WSGA Senate of technology needs, opportunities, and other relevant issues agreed to upon hiring.
8. Should a Technology Director be hired, they will make available to the Senate a detailed end of the term report analyzing the year's activities and providing suggestions for the future.
9. Should a Technology Director not be hired, these responsibilities shall be delegated to other members of the WSGA Cabinet by the President.

SECTION 6. ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT POSITION

A. The WSGA Administrative Assistant shall have the responsibility to:

1. Maintain at least 20 scheduled office hours per week during the spring and fall semesters with at least one office hour scheduled each day Monday through Friday. If chosen to do summer hours, maintain at least 5 scheduled hours a week during the summer semester. Office hours may only be scheduled between 8am and 7pm.
2. Attend all WSGA Senate meetings as outlined by the Chief of Staff attendance policy.
3. Take attendance, minutes, and provide other internal services necessary at all WSGA Senate meetings.
4. Maintain accurate files and records pertaining to all WSGA activities.
5. Carry out other administrative functions and services as deemed necessary by the WSGA President and/or Chief of Staff.
6. Type and distribute legislation from WSGA Senators.
7. Maintain a current copy of the WSGA Constitution in the Office of Student Involvement and Development.
8. Make available to the Senate a detailed end of the term report analyzing the year's activities and suggestions for the future.
9. Assist the Chief of Staff with the year-end report by compiling the minutes, bills and resolutions from each previous meeting's minutes.
