

Bill and Emily Gahnstrom
Diversity and Inclusion Program and Student Support Fund Instructions

The Diversity and Inclusion Program and Student Support Fund is a discretionary fund to support the work of the Office of Diversity and Inclusion and students who work in the office. Use of the funds will be at the discretion of the Director of Diversity and Inclusion. Use of the funds includes multicultural student recruitment, diversity conference, speakers, scholars, social justice discussions and inclusive co-curricular activities. Use of the funds also includes the equipment and program needs of the Office of Diversity and Inclusion. A portion of the funds may also be used to provide one student scholarship per year based on the criteria below:

Scholarship Award Criteria:

- Student must have a minimum 2.5 overall GPA.
- Student must have sophomore standing or above and demonstrate financial need.
- Students must have been actively engaged in a Washburn University Student multicultural organization or Office of Diversity and Inclusion Program for at least one year.
- Students must demonstrate campus leadership, community service or civic engagement supporting marginalized communities, on or off campus.
- Students must submit a brief (one page) statement indicating their goals for the future, including how they will utilize their Washburn University Education.
