

Dear Tom Averill -

Thank you for the brochure. You handled Stan very well, I think. I doubt that J-C will ever really consider him a credit to the community, but the hostility has certainly toned down to allow that many to attend your program. I appreciate being included both by you and by John Jeffries.

You may never have a use for the family legend I promised to send you but I'll sketch it herewith, briefly - It is