Dear Tom Averill,

Home late last night from an engagement at Davis, California, (Karl Shapiro is thriving in the English Dept there), I found in the mail my Kansas calendar and your note about plans.

Thanks for the spread of Kansas lore!

You could certainly have my permission for use of some poems; any in Harper & Row books should have routine clearance through their office--10 E 53d St, NY, NY 10022, c/o Mrs. Ann Harris. If you should happen to come across anything of mine just in periodicals, I think crediting the magazine should take care of most such. By the way, Harper & Row have just brought out "Stories That Could Be True, New and Collected Poems," including new poems, the four books H&R had already published, and an earlier book of mine long out of print--"West of Your City."

Also--my main bit of news--I expect to be at KU as one of those visiting writers from Feb 26 to Mar 3. Hope to see you!

So long--

Bill Stafford
