

ALEXIS YELLAND

Alexis is graduating with a Bachelor's of Science in Athletic Training degree. She has passed her national Board of Certification exam for Athletic Trainers and upon completing her degree will have earned her credential as a Certified Athletic Trainer. In August, she will be pursuing a master's degree in Athletic Training from Western Michigan University. While at WMU she will also be completing a graduate assistantship where she will serve as an athletic trainer to a local high school in Hopkins, Michigan.

Alexis is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta Honor Society, the Leadership Institute, First Year Experience Peer Educator Club, Washburn Mortar Board Society, Residential Living, Washburn's Student Athletic Training Society, Kansas Athletic Trainers' Society, Mid-America Athletic Trainers' Association, National Athletic Trainers' Association and the NATA Student Leadership Committee.

She was recognized as the Washburn Athletic Training Society's Emerging Leader in 2016 and 2017 and was awarded the Kinesiology Department's Bachelor of Science Major of the Year in 2017. Alexis was Washburn University's 2017 Homecoming Queen and was chosen as a 2018 recipient of Washburn's Who's Who award. The Kansas Athletic Trainers' Society named Alexis as a First Team All-Academic Member for 2016 and 2017.

Alexis has completed two scholarly and creative WTEs through the Leadership Institute. She has also completed two international WTEs through traveling to Brussels, Belgium with the Leadership Institute and in studying abroad for two weeks in London and Paris through the Washburn Kinesiology Department.

Alexis received a NATA Foundation Scholarship, a KATS Scholarship, a Washburn University College of Arts and Sciences Dean's Scholar Scholarship, the Kinesiology Department Dr. Mac Community Service Scholarship, and the Valedictorian Scholarship.