

CHRISTIAN LIEWER

Christian is graduating with a Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice degree with an emphasis in Forensic Investigation. He is pursuing employment as a crime scene technician with local crime laboratories and police departments. He plans on attending graduate school to pursue a Masters in Forensic Science degree.

Christian is a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society and the Alpha Phi Sigma National Criminal Justice Honor Society. He volunteered as a Washburn University Police Cadet aiding Washburn University Police Officers. He has also volunteered as a note-taker for a special needs student during his coursework.

Christian was a member of the Forensic Science Club. He also complete an 80 hour training in bloodstain pattern analysis, fulfilling requirements of the International Association for Identification and the International Association of Bloodstain Pattern Analysts. He trained with three other students under a crime scene investigator as a part of a SkillsUSA team.

Christian received the Valedictorian Scholarship, Culver Trust WEA Scholarship, Garvey Scholarship WEA, Bowman Scholarship, Ruth Walker O'Riley Scholarship, Chavez Scholarship in Criminal Justice, and School of Applied Studies Scholarship.